AVERTISSEMENT

Le but de ce petit manuel de « Vocabulaire anglais par l'image » est simple : son titre l'explique suffisamment.

Il souhaite fournir à l'élève des classes de l'Enseignement Secondaire et Technique allant de la 4<sup>e</sup> à la 1<sup>re</sup> (1) un vocabulaire de base suffisant (environ 1.800 mots) pour comprendre un texte anglais de difficulté moyenne et pour lui permettre de le commenter de façon convenable.

Utilisé à partir de la 4<sup>e</sup>, ce petit ouvrage fournira à l'élève un instrument commode de révision et d'enrichissement en même temps qu'il de mise en œuvre de ses connaissances linguistiques. En 4<sup>e</sup> et en 3<sup>e</sup>, le professeur pourra se contenter de l'utiliser directement en classe pour des études systématiques de vocabulaire et des exercices d'application oraux et écrits.

Pourquoi tant de dessins ? Les raisons en sont aussi évidentes qu'impérieuses :

- 1<sup>o</sup> Rendre plus attrayantes les révisions de vocabulaire ;
- 2<sup>o</sup> Faire davantage appel à la mémoire visuelle (le souvenir d'un dessin fait resurgir dans la mémoire le mot anglais qui lui correspond et amorce une réaction en chaîne de souvenirs visuels et intellectuels) ;
- 3<sup>o</sup> Supprimer l'intermédiaire du mot français, solution de passivité, souvent dangereuse ;

Un très grand nombre de questions de difficulté croissante et d'« essays » très variés permettront de préciser et de mettre en œuvre les acquisitions linguistiques, tout en constituant une utile préparation aux examens de fin d'année.

Enfin, une série de 9 dessins synthétiques (2) devrait faciliter des révisions générales d'un caractère plus souple.

Le but essentiel de l'auteur — instruit par une longue et parfois décevante expérience de l'enseignement du vocabulaire — est de mettre à la disposition

- des élèves : un manuel aussi attrayant que possible leur permettant de vérifier, préciser, enrichir, nuancer et réviser leur vocabulaire ;
- des professeurs : un instrument commode, souple, susceptible d'être adapté à tous les niveaux, toutes les classes, tous les manuels et toutes les méthodes.

C'est là un idéal à la fois simple et ambitieux. Puisse-t-il, dans sa réalisation pratique, satisfaire totalement tous ceux à qui il est destiné.

Aimé JANICOT.

(1) Deux autres ouvrages sont projetés à l'usage, d'une part, des classes du 1<sup>er</sup> cycle, et, d'autre part, des classes terminales, des Grandes Écoles et des adultes déjà initiés. Ce dernier ouvrage accordera une large place au vocabulaire technique et à la langue américaine, volontairement négligés dans le présent volume.

(2) Un disque de commentaire de ces dessins synthétiques est en préparation. Il permettra à l'élève :

- d'écouter régulièrement la mise en œuvre du vocabulaire étudié ;
- de fixer de façon vivante la prononciation des mots essentiels.

10 WEATHER AND SEASONS

"With thee conversing, I forget all time,
All seasons and their change, all places alike.
Sweet is the breath of morn, her rising sweet,
With charm of earliest birds; pleasant the sun
When first on this delightful land he spreads
His orient beams, on herb, tree, fruit and flower,
Glist'ring with dew."

Milton: Paradise Lost.

The four seasons of the year.

22 TRAVELLING

" Evening red and morning grey
Help the traveller on his way;
Evening grey and morning red
Bring down rain upon his head."

" Hitch your wagon to a star."
R.W. Emerson.

I take a short trip to London: I merely (= simply) cross the Channel. Travellers enjoy a long voyage by sea; great distances mean long journeys. Communications and transport are easier than a hundred years ago: the ways of travelling are more direct, the means of conveyance more numerous, faster, and cheaper.

A — TRAVELLING BY AIR

25 MIXED BAG (1)

A — INTELLECTUAL LIFE

An intelligent ( $\neq$  stupid, silly, dull) pupil understands at once ( $=$  immediately) when the teacher explains.

His ideas are clear, his answers accurate ( $\neq$  wrong);

When several solutions to a problem are possible ( $\neq$  impossible) he can choose (a choice) very quickly without making a single mistake; having a good memory, he remembers ( $\neq$  to forget) all the important things.

— Critics seldom ( $\neq$  often) agree ( $\neq$  to disagree) with each other upon the beauty of the same work of art.

— We had to go to the play together ( $=$  the two of us) at 8 o'clock. It is 8.15, I wonder whether he will come. I shall wait till 8.30 but not beyond this time ( $=$  no later).

— To tie a can to the tail of a cat is a very poor joke; it is a foolish thing to do; it shows no sense of humour.

B — MORAL LIFE

A good boy (or: girl):

— never lies to his parents (he always tells the truth);

— is always polite ("Excuse me, sir!" "I'm sorry, madam!");

— never loses his temper; he keeps his head when something terrible happens;

— always avoids doing ugly ( $\neq$  beautiful) things;

— is never idle (he keeps working all the time);

— he would be ashamed (to blush) to do the awful things forbidden by the teachers;

What a splendid treasure for his (or: her) parents!

C — EMOTIONS

She is quite emotional (to feel an emotion); she always imagines (imagination) strange things:

to reason ( a sensible person )	} she prefers	{	passion ( to get excited );
to pleasure			melancholy ( a melancholy girl );
to wisdom ( a wise old man )			fancy ( cf.: a fancy dress dance );
to patience ( to be patient )			sympathy ( to sympathize with );
to envy or jealousy			pity ( to take pity on somebody );

I love my parents; of my two friends, Johany is the one I like better;

I am fond of swimming.

He hates his enemies; he detests seeing them; he loathes them.

25 MIXED BAG (2)

Dans cette page sont groupés, sans la moindre prétention d'ordre cohérent, quelques mots qui posent en général divers problèmes aux élèves.

- D — to rise: the sun rises in the morning ;
 to arise: doubts arose in his mind ;
 to raise: Lazarus was raised from the dead ;
 to arouse: You are going to arouse the whole house ;
- to remember: after his accident the pilot remembered nothing ;
 to remind: she's such a sweet girl ! She reminds me of my school-mistress ;
 to remain: after the fall of an A. Bomb, nothing remains over a wide area ;
 to call back: as the prisoner was leaving his cell, the director called him back.
- to look at: the cows will find it difficult to look at jet planes when there are no longer trains ;
 to look: " You are very pale : you look ill, I'll send for the doctor. " to look like: the twins look very much like each other ;
 to seem: " He seems to be hiding a flat iron in his gloves " the boxer exclaimed.

Traductions de « grand » :

Napoleon was not a tall man, but he was a great general ; the U.S.A. is a very large country ; he has bought a big car ; his birthday was a grand day ; when he is older he will be an explorer, with a long beard like his grandfather's.
